SPECIAL CAR FROM UTICA TONIGHT.

The team will return from Canton tonight, leaving Utica on a special car about 12:45 tomorrow morning. As the management has to guarantee fifty fares, it will help out if fellows who are in Utica tonight will wait for this special car. Ordinarily this would seem a Providential dispensation. Let all who can, help the management when it means so little effort.

Prof. Rice Speaks on Chess.

After noon chapel last Saturday, Prof. Isaac L. Rice presented the College with a handsomely equipped chess table. The table is made of weathered oak. The top is beautifully inlaid with different woods to make the chess board. Surrounding this are silver plates, one bearing the Hamilton seal, the others being left blank for the names of successful winners in yearly tournaments. Prof. Rice said that he had always been interested in gymnastics of the body and was especially interested in this game because he believes it furnishes gymnastics for the brain. This material encouragement to chess ought to result in a greatly increased interest. Chess is a branch of learning or sport, whichever it may be, which we should place among the foremost.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The Association will join the Colgate Y. M. C. A. in Bible study institute Saturday, Oct. 28th. It is hoped that a large delegation will attend.

The meeting tomorrow will be a students' meeting at 5 o'clock. Let us have a large attendance. A short time before lunch spent in singing will do us good. If well attended this kind of meeting is most beneficial.

Cabinet meeting at 7 o'clock Monday night to transact unfinished business and elect delegates to the Colgate Bible Study Conference.

THE SYRACUSE GAME.

The Team Plays Brilliantly Till Worn Down by Beef.

FINAL SCORE: 27-0.

Before a crowd of nearly two thousand people, in such a stubbornly and pluckily fought contest as has not been witnessed here for many a day, Hamilton went down before Syracuse. It was the same old story of a light, fast team playing a heavy team, and as is always the case the heavy team won out. The weather was excellent and early in the afternoon the crowd began to come. The bleachers on the east side of the Campus were reserved for the Syracuse rooters, and just before the game commenced they marched in, a goodly delegation and strong both in yelling and singing.

Hamilton chose to defend the south goal and at 2:45 Banks for Syracuse kicked to the 10-yard line. Moore brought the ball back 20 yards, and on the next play ran 15 yards, and then, almost before Syracuse had thought the game was started and before her men were in their positions, Moore took the leather again and skirted left end for 20 yards more, to be stopped by Banks. Roosa and Moore then made end runs of 5 and 10 yards gain. Another run by Roosa carried the ball to the 35-yard line, but here we fumbled and Syracuse got the ball. Short, sharp gains by the Syracuse backs and a 15-yard run by Harwood, put the ball well into our territory, when a fumble was made and Bram. was off with the ball for 20 yards before anyone knew what had happened. Moore and Mann hit the line for good gains and Sicard made a brilliant dash of 25 yards on a trick play. But just as our hopes were way up, Syracuse held on the 25-yard line. Dolan made five yards through right tackle and Stimson repeated the play on the other side of the line. O'Connell hit center for 10 yards. The backs worked hard and kept gaining. Banks got away for 10 yards in a quarterback run. Stimson and O'Connell went through for long gains until the ball was planted on Hamilton's 1-foot line, where the team using every ounce of strength that it had, held magnificently for downs against the terrific onslaughts of the Syracuse backs. Bramley punted 30 yards, the ball going out of bounds, Syracuse received the ball and once more began their battering the line for the ends were too good, and finally Stimson hurdled the line for a touchdown. Banks missed an easy goal. Score: Hamilton 0, Syracuse 5. Time to make touchdown, 19 minutes.

Banks kicked off to Hamilton's 10-yard line. Bramley ran it back 20 yards but Syracuse held for downs. Dolan was sent through the line for 15 yards. Rutherford was thrown back on an end run. After a couple of short gains Stimson was carried on the shoulders of the team to Hamilton's 1-yard line when time was called. Score: Hamilton 0, Syracuse 5.

SECOND HALF.

Swetman kicked to Syracuse's 10-yard line. Stimson made 15 yards. A line buck netted 25 yards. Dolan made a 25-yard run and was soon sent over for a touchdown. Banks failed at goal. Score: Hamilton 0, Syracuse 10.

Banks kicked to Hamilton's 15-yard line, Stryker making 5 yards. Bramley punted 50 yards and once more Syracuse sent her heavy backs against Hamilton's line, now weakening but still full of fight, until O'Connell went over for another touchdown. Banks made the goal. Score: Hamilton 0, Syracuse 16.

Swetman tried an old kick-off trick which failed, the ball going out of bounds; then he kicked to the 20-yard line, Bennett tackling the runner in his tracks. But the strong new backs that Syracuse had put in rushed to ball down the field and Stimson scored a touchdown. Russell kicked his goal. Score: Hamilton 0, Syracuse 22.

Sicard kicked to O'Connell on the 10-yard line. The ball was carried to the center of the field where Syracuse was penalized 20 yards because the quarterback failed to go 15 yards out on his run. Moore nailed Powell on a fake punt and Syracuse punted 30 yards. Bramley failed on a quarterback run and Hamilton was penalized 20 yards. A fake punt on Bramley's part was not made good and Syracuse getting the ball again rushed it the goal line for the last touchdown of the game. Russell failed the goal. Score: Hamilton 0, Syracuse 27.

Sicard kicked to Syracuse on their 10-yard line and time was called with the ball in Syracuse's possession on their own 40-yard line. Final score: Hamilton 0, Syracuse 27.

Hamilton played a hard, plucky game but had to yield to the superior weight of her opponents. Hamilton's team averages 156 pounds per man and Syracuse's at least 175.

The game was pretty clean, only one man from each side being put out for dirty playing and there was the best of spirit between the rooters. On the whole it was all we could ask for. We were beaten and beaten squarely, by square people. For Syracuse Harwood, Banks, O'Connell, Powell and Dolan did good work. While for Hamilton, though every man dug in for all he was worth, Nellis, Sicard, Moore and Roosa seemed to be busiest. Bramley played well and kept the team fighting, but showed poor generalship at times. His defensive work was splendid.

Our Young Alumni in Politics.

Hamilton men continue to show up in front in every department of activity. This fall several of our younger alumni are prominent in politics in their respective localities. W. I. Lee, '99, is running for Assemblyman on the Republican ticket and among other good things said about him we take this clipping from a Brooklyn daily: "Warren I. Lee, the nominee of the Republicans of the Eighteenth Assembly District for the office of Assemblyman, is one of the most popular young men in Flatbush. He has a host of friends, Republicans and Democrats alike, although he has always been a staunch Republican. Mr. Lee is a lawyer, and a member of the well-known law firm of Bradbury & Lee, 60 Wall street, Manhattan. He is married and resides at 156 Woodruff avenue. He was born in Oneida county, N. Y., thirty-one years ago, and was graduated from Hamilton College, class of '99. He is president of the Theodore Roosevelt Club, a member of the Union League, and treasurer of the University Club, and is also a member of Kings County Lodge No. 511, F. & A. M. The Eighteenth Assembly District has a large Republican majority and Mr. Lee is pretty well certain of election."

"Nelse" Drummond, '02, is Democratic nominee for District Attorney of Cayuga county and is stumping the district for his party. Though in a Republican stronghold he is making a strong effort for election and is certainly proving himself worthy of the honor.

Salvation Cannot be Paid For.

There is no path without its thorns. While the football team was busy trying to meet the demands of an appetite born of hard-fought scrimmages, a feminine step sounded through Commons at Tuesday lunch. Those whose wont it is to dine less sumptuously, that is at $4 a week, had already departed and left the training table alone in its glory. She of the dainty step approached gingerly the grim looking football Trojans, but encouraged by the smile of Captain Bramley made the purpose of her visit known. A red band about her bonnet marked "Salvation Army" told most of the story, the conclusion was an appeal for that constantly varying medium of exchange, which approaches zero as its limit and frequently reaches it. Captain Bramley is reported to have with difficulty withheld a smile; some one laughed, but no one saw his way clear to break through the interference for a touchdown into his change pocket. So the stranger departed a sadder and a wiser woman.

Musical Clubs.

Soon the attention of everyone in College will be directed toward the musical clubs. These clubs, outside of the athletic teams, deserve more support than any other phase of college activity. Every man who has any musical talent or ability should willingly give it to this cause. There are five vacancies to be filled in the glee club and six on the mandolin club. "Stunt" makers are also in demand. The first of the semi-weekly rehearsals will be held the latter part of next week.

Manager Floyd French, '07, has probable dates at Binghamton, Auburn, Elmira, Corning, Rome, Johnstown, Oneida and Herkimer. The first concert will be given in Clinton.

The Faculty have ruled that "cuts" will not be given for entertainments in small towns, but that a liberal allowance will be granted if the management books a few cities of some size. Inability to obtain "cuts" for a trip of any length has always been the main obstacle. Now that this has been removed it is purely up to the financial end of the business. We are looking for something worth while.

Sophomores Win.

The Fall Track Meet, which was begun last week, was finished Wednesday and resulted in an easy victory for the Sophomores. The events occurred in the following order:

120-Yd. Hurdle—Holley, '08, first; McLean, '08, second; Leavenworth, '09, third. Time 17 3-5 seconds.

Hammer Throw—Cody, '08, first; McLean, '08, second; Spencer, '09, third. Distance 72 feet 1 inch.

220-Yd. Dash—Holley, '08, first; Roenke, '09, second; Broome, '09, third. Time 24 3-5 seconds.

One Mile Run—Smith, '08, first; Osbourne, '09, second; Hatfield, '09, third. Time 5 minutes 23 seconds.

Running High Jump—Hull and McLean, '08, tied for first; Adams, '08, third. Height 5 feet.

440-Yd. Run—McLean, '08, first; Getman, '09, second; Spencer, '09, third. Time 1 minute 1 second.

Running Broad Jump—Felt, '08, first; Holley, '08, second; Leavenworth, '09, third. Distance 18 feet 10 inches.

Two Mile Run—Smith, '08, first; Kellogg, '08, second; Joralemon, '08, third.

Pole Vault—Leavenworth, '09, first; Stone, '09, second; Wilson, '09, third. Distance 9 feet.

220-Yd. Hurdle—Holley, '08, first; Wilson, '09, second; Leavenworth, '09, third. Time 29 2-5 seconds.

Score: Sophomores, 72; Freshmen, 45. Considering the condition of the track and the wind blowing, the time was very

Vol. VIII. SATURDAY, OCT. 21, 1905. No. 5

THE SYRACUSE GAME showed conclusively that the team is a good one for its weight. As long as sheer dash could withstand superior weight, we outplayed the visitors, puncturing their line and skirting their ends for brilliant gains. We had hard luck in fumbling at critical moments and the line men suffered in their play by the knowledge that they had no substitutes to take their places if they were injured. Our offense in the first few minutes of play was far more scientific than anything Syracuse showed even after our men were tired out. Even in the second half the team fought fiercely and that third touchdown was hardly won. Our stand on the six-inch line was something that the Orange couldn't quite understand and nothing better was ever seen on Steuben Field. The team did well.

The rooters, too, did splendid work and our yelling was easily better and more spirited than that of Syracuse, as they admitted, even though we were outnumbered. We have more hard games coming and the College needs to get out on the sidelines at practice and encourage the team. The Union game at Schenectady ought to draw a hundred men from here. Three years ago we out-yelled Union completely on her own field and we want to do it again. Trinity seems to be playing a good game this year and that contest will be a good one. Colgate looms ominously ahead, they have a great team, but Hamilton nerve and spirit can accomplish wonders and we call no quits till the final whistle.

This season has gone well so far. Don't let things slack, but bohn in and help along.

THE ACTION OF COLGATE in disqualifying Whittaker, their captain-elect of baseball, on the grounds of professionalism, deserves credit, if only for its promptness. Whittaker played professional ball all summer under the name of White, and his fall from grace was well known by many men in college. In our intense rivalry we have a tendency to think that other colleges are wholly as bad and mercenary. Now, while we believe that no college in the country has quite such clean athletics, still it is safe to say that almost all other colleges are pretty decent and that we are not the only people with a clean slate.

However, we cannot forbear mentioning a press notice which says that Mr. Whittaker, having been debarred from athletics at Colgate, will enter St. Lawrence University, where he can compete in any branch of sport, regardless of the action of Colgate's authorities. We trust that this may be a false report, for if true, it cannot add to the good reputation of our friends in the north. Still there is no telling.

Horr, the Colgate Academy star, having failed of entrance at Colgate, Cornell and Pennsylvania, has finally found berth and board at Syracuse. Horr and Young have apparently joined the ranks of the commercial athlete. Heaven preserve us from such!

ONCE MORE THE SUBJECT of support on the sidelines is up. During the last week the yelling has been conspicuous by its absence. On Tuesday three Seniors actually gave the yell by themselves. There have been no Freshmen on the bleachers. Where is the college spirit in 1909? If they care for the college and their team, let them show up support on the sidelines at practice as well as at games. We yell well enough at games; we out-yelled Syracuse last Saturday, when we were losing. That proves there's spirit enough, but let's see it during the week of practice.

And then there's another thing. Some of the 'varsity complained, and justly, last week, that if the fellows come out they ought not to spend their energy kicking a football back and forth behind the bleachers. If they have so much surplus spirit, it would be better taste if they would show it in yelling. Those who were doing this were not Freshmen, either.

COLLEGE CUSTOM IS USUALLY a good thing to follow here at Hamilton, but when that custom leads to the cry "Heads Out," every time a visitor enters the Campus, it is time to discard it.

Last Sunday afternoon this abomination reached the high water mark and "Heads Out" was the watchword in both dormitories. Even Hamilton men showing friends or relatives the College were not spared, but were greeted with yells from the windows. We all know that among our many Sunday visitors we recognize two distinct classes. If the cry "Heads Out" and the accompanying remarks in any way discouraged our unwelcome visitors, this custom would have at least one redeeming feature. On the contrary it pleases that class and causes annoyance only to those whose interest in the College should be encouraged by our courtesy. So let us be more thoughtful and not consider the first glimpse of feminine apparel the signal for "Heads Out".

From the Syracuse Herald.

The Syracuse rooters who attended the Hamilton-Syracuse game at Clinton yesterday were given a revelation in the manner of yelling. The Syracuse rooters outnumbered the Hamilton men and when they yelled they made more noise, but for steady, consistent cheering and cheering that told, the Hamilton bunch was as far ahead of the Syracuse crowd as the Syracuse team was ahead of the Hamilton team. The Hamilton side of the bleachers was in excitement all the time and the influence of the yelling at critical points of the game was easily seen. The yelling of the Syracuse contingent was not all that could be desired by many of the supporters of the team.

The yelling of the Hamilton crowd at Clinton ought to be an example to Syracuse to quit this "hot weather" yelling. It has been a noted characteristic of the students at Syracuse that they yell and yell fairly well when the team is winning. At times yesterday when the team was not doing all that was expected of it, the cheer leaders were unable to get the stands to yell. The rooters said that they "were yelled out," while right across the field the Hamilton men were keeping it up incessantly. After the game the Syracuse crowd filed off the field without any concentrated expression of their appreciation of the work of the team. The Hamilton crowd yelled after the game, and, although beaten and sore because of it, the students gathered round the gymnasium and yelled for the team while the men were dressing. One never heard of that being done at Syracuse.

Hamilton can't show Syracuse anything about football, but the Clinton men are certainly past masters in the art of cheering, if Syracuse is to be taken as even a member of the order."

Something to our Credit.

Saturday's game although a defeat for our team, furnished to the Syracuse followers and the spectators an example of what the Hamilton spirit really is. Even when the heavy Syracuse team was tearing great holes in our line, the men in the bleachers kept up their incessant cheering. Quite a large number of College men came up to see the game and helped us cheer. The College appreciates this very much and extends its heartfelt thanks. May the good feeling between us increase.

Trustees' Meeting.

On Tuesday of this week at 3 p. m. the Board of Trustees met in the President's Room in Truax Hall, for their regular fall meeting. Those present were: Charles C. Kingsley, chairman, Utica; Hon. Charles A. Hawley, Seneca Falls; Rev. Dr. Spaulding, Syracuse; Thomas D. Catlin, Ottawa, Ill.; George E. Dunham, Utica; Hamilton B. Tompkins, New York; President Stryker, College Hill; Gen. Charles H. Smyth, Clinton; Franklin D. Locke, Buffalo; Charles B. Rogers, Utica; Hon. Chauncey S. Truax, New York; Col. Wm. Cary Sanger, Sangerfield; Hon. Oliver E. Branch, Manchester, N. H.; Samuel H. Adams, Auburn.

It was reported that the new reservoir, the gift of Hon. Elihu Root and Charles B. Rogers, is finished. This has a capacity to supply a college of 300 students. There can be no fear now of a water famine.

The Fayerweather Fund has paid the Treasurer of the College $5000.

It was also reported by the President that Prof. W. J. Miller had been appointed to the chair of Geology for one year.

The meeting adjourned to 10 a. m., on the Wednesday of Commencement week.

—Wednesday Yale defeated Princeton in golf, and Williams won the New England championship again.

College Notes.

—Enough new catalogues for all at the Library.

—Everett VanAllen, '02, spent Sunday upon the Hill.

—Rev. Mr. Bigelow, '51, visited the College Saturday.

—Many fellows entertained Syracuse men over Sunday.

—Clay Dudley, ex-'08, was on the Hill for the Syracuse game.

—"Nick" has been confined to his house with an attack of quinsy.

—Simmons and Holmes, '08, were in Ithaca over Saturday and Sunday.

—Hon. Chauncey S. Truax witnessed the track meet Wednesday afternoon.

—Hon. O. E. Branch, '73, was on the Hill Wednesday for the trustee meeting.

—Ostrander, '99, holder of the college record for the half-mile, was back on Saturday.

—The 1908 Freshman Frolic cost $169.00. They are thinking seriously about a Hop.

—How about the Glee and Mandolin clubs? Isn't it about time for them to begin operations?

—Humphrey, Sherman, Munger, and Mills, '05, and Hunter, '04, were visitors on the Hill Saturday.

—There have not been as many men on the sidelines this week as could be accommodated. Even those who are out don't seem to yell as strongly as they might.

—Bright, '07, came out at five o'clock on Wednesday, instead of at midnight. What's Bright's disease?

—Don't be too free with the hot water in the "Gym." The football men certainly earn a warm bath.

—An unusual amount of "pinching" has been going on lately. Such a thing can easily be carried too far.

—The Sophomores had their final examination on the first half of their German sentences last Thursday.

—Announcement is made of the marriage of Frederick Easton, ex-'06, to Miss Hoopes, of Pennsylvania.

—"Occie" Kuolt felt quite humiliated when in history class "Woodie" said of Cromwell, "He beats the Dutch."

—The walls of New South are rising more rapidly now. Some radical changes from the plan of Carnegie are noticed.

—Mr. Henry H. Benedict, a trustee of the College, and the donator of the Hall of Languages, was on the Hill this week.

—"Tad" Weekes in Y. M. C. A.: "Why, they made so much noise yelling that I do not see how the women stood it."

—The contractors have been good enough to provide another pile of lath, and all we need is another victory to set it off.

—Has anyone seen that students' "better half" the Blue Book? If so, let him speak up and be forever blessed by his fellows.

—Colgate plays Syracuse at Syracuse today. The game will be very hard fought, but is generally conceded to Colgate.

—Some of the Juniors wore a crest-fallen expression when they discovered that Gilbert's set-up had been good for one day only.

—Hunter, '03, who is now a Senior in Auburn Theological Seminary, preached an interesting sermon, Sunday, at Olivet Church, Utica.

—Syracuse papers said that a smaller number of Buff and Blue supporters out-yelled the "Salt City" representatives. That's going some.

—Under the direction of three recently appointed cheer leaders, the Freshmen have been making good use of their newly adopted class yell.

—The organ got out of breath last week in the midst of one of the hymns; but by the skillful ministrations of Dr. Purdy it was soon resuscitated.

—A Sophomore shirt parade would have been in order Wednesday night. The review in Dutch sentences Thursday morning probably prevented.

—When a couple of yellow dogs scampered across the field during the game last Saturday, some humorous spectator cried out, "Keep those d—yellow dogs off the field."

—After Chapel last Saturday, "Prex" called upon Rev. William A. Bartlett, '52, to speak a few words to the College. Mr. Bartlett talked upon the subject of grit and stick-to-it-iveness.

—From the track meet Wednesday it is evident that there is some very good material in the Freshman class; however, it needs developing. Our team next spring should be a good one.

—It seemed rather strange to hear Colgate men on the sidelines yelling for our team. But it shows that there is no feeling between the two colleges other than that of good-natured rivalry.

—The removal of the pile of stone in front of Carnegie has stirred up much interest, and some of the sporting gentry laid bets last week as to how long it would take to get it out of the way.

—At the election of the officers for the Junior class, Kuolt moved that "set-ups" be abolished. Strange to say, his motion was not even seconded. Perhaps "Dutch" expects further honors.

—Hosmer, ex-'06, was on the Hill this week. He was out in the field during football practice a couple of afternoons and exhibited his old time form. The College is always glad to see "Hos" back.

—When the subject of raising the salary of the Faculty was brought up in the Trustee meeting, some one suggested that it would hardly be safe as some of professors are susceptible to heart trouble.

—A Freshman, having eaten the full quota of meals for the four Sundays of the term thus far, anxiously inquired of an upperclassman recently whether the evening meal for that day was copy-righted.

—There was a big sale of souvenir postal cards last Saturday to the Syracuse delegation, and it is reported that not one of the co-eds was forgotten when Monday morning's mail reached the Salt City.

—The excitement on the cheering stand was too much for one of the Freshmen last Saturday. In a burst of enthusiasm he shouted, "Hurrah for High School, go it High School." An emphatic pressure upon his floating ribs brought him back to his surroundings, but after all the spirit was there, and we'll take that for the deed this time.

—By-the-way, Syracuse had quite a galaxy of feminine beauty among its rooters. It is too bad that better car service was not provided from Clinton after the game for these loyal members of the fair sex.

—A number of Colgate men were present at the chapel exercises Saturday. Although the course in public speaking has been dropped from Colgate's curriculum, they seemed much interested in these exercises.

—Cheer, boys, cheer! If a football team ever deserved it, ours does this fall. The whole squad is working hard and the coach with them. We should not begrudge a few minutes spent on the side lines each day.

—The basket-ball prospects for this season are bright. All of last year's team will be in the game and promise to be very fast. The schedule includes a four-day trip to Wesleyan, Trinity, Amherst and Williams.

—A. H. Holley, president of the Sophomore class, has appointed the Sophomore Hop committee as follows: Williams, Weeks, Babcock, Smith, Morgan, White, Cody, McLean, Hull. No chairman has been elected as yet.

—"Uncle" is instituting many changes. His automobile has been shorn of its tonneau and rear seat, converting it into a runabout. He has also decided to have all the Freshmen take their "gym" work together, instead of in two divisions.

—Sam Adams, '91, was back for the trustee meeting on Tuesday. It is understood that when he returns in a few days he will appoint an undergraduate "Press Club" to see that Hamilton news is placed in the leading daily papers of the east.

—With much sputtering and floundering, those of the Freshmen who can not swim have taken their first lesson with varying success. Their admiration of the art is said to have increased with each new attempt to imitate the amphibians.

—At the Y. M. C. A. meeting last Sunday the reports were given by the delegates to the Northfield Conference. According to their stories they must have had a jolly time. It is expected that next year the College will be better represented.

—Monday evening seems to be given over to underclassman rows this term. Last Monday the Sophomores were out in force and succeeded in catching several Freshmen, whom they gym-showed. Ye who would study of a Monday evening give up all hope.

—There will be a special car for the football team tonight. It will leave Utica at 12:45 a. m. Anyone in Utica who takes advantage of this "special" will be doing the football management a favor, as they must guarantee fifty fares, and if that number do not ride, they will lose money.

—After trying unsuccessfully to "elocute" a given sentence recently, a Freshman announced that there was something grammatically wrong with it. He realized that the joke was on him, after Prof. White told him it was taken from "Hamlet." Another Freshman described a waving slide as a slight protuberance on the voice.

—About the middle of November the editor of the Illustrated Sporting Weekly intends to print an article on Hamilton, as part of the series, "Leading Colleges and Preparatory Schools of America." Drummond, '06, will write the article, and Pres. Stryker will edit it. There will be photographs of the various athletic teams, Carnegie, the Chapel, Philosophy, Sciences, Languages, and the Litchfield Observatory.

creditable. The meet showed some excellent material in '09, but which needs consistent work to be developed.

After the meet, in order to celebrate the result and give a fitting end to such a victory, the Sophomores formed in line and paraded the field singing scurf songs. The Freshmen, nervous but goaded, attempted to oppose the march and things looked promising for a row. However, after a short, ineffectual mix-up, the Freshmen decided to withdraw and the Sophomores continued their triumphal procession.
